This book zeros in on crimes that seem peculiar to Africa. They cover the experience of the author who has been a prosecuting attorney for over 13 years in Nigeria. In the course of prosecuting crimes in Nigeria - the giant of Africa, the author was confronted with bizarre crimes that are not heard of in other jurisdictions, like that of a young sane man raping his mother because a witch doctor divined that sleeping with his mother was the only solution for his economic woes or the case of a father killing his son over a mug of rice.
